Reflection: God is speaking to us. Are we listening? Are we taking time, in silence, to allow the whisperings of God in our soul to be noticed amid all the other voices vying for our attention? Hopefully so. For if the psalmist is correct, then, the Lord is the one who has the words of everlasting life. God is the one who we can trust to reveal to us what is perfect, trustworthy, and right. The words of the Lord will refresh our soul, give us wisdom, bring rejoicing to our hearts and enlightenment to our eyes.

These are all things we desire, things we need. And God is the only one who can truly give them to us. This season of Lent can serve as a reminder that we need to listen – to take time in silence with Jesus. To be more intentional about slowing down, taking a breath, and simply allowing ourselves to be present with Him who continues to speak to us. May we hear the voice of God, and allow Him to lead us through this holy season, and through every season that comes our way, as we trust that He alone has the words of everlasting life. Prayer: Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.

Closing: Schedule time today with the Lord. Make it the most important appointment of the day. And give God your undivided attention during that time, so as to enter more deeply into this conversation. <https://www.thecatholictelegraph.com/lenten-reflections-2024/95045>
