A message from Jessie Parkinson, National CWL Chairperson of Social Justice:

Excerpt: "Bill C-218 is an important bill in ongoing efforts to protect vulnerable populations from choosing to die because Canada does not have adequate resources to treat mental illness. It is scheduled for second reading in the House of Commons on December 5th.

In the second reading the MP who put forward the bill outlines the principles of the bill, followed by a debate and a vote. If the vote passes, the bill is referred to a committee that studies it and may hear witnesses and make amendments before referring it back to the House for a third and final reading. Second reading is a crucial step in the process as if the vote is unsuccessful it dies there. Please inform members and request that they urgently contact their MPs to ask them to support Bill C-218. Letters, emails and telephone calls are important."

For the protection of serious vulnerable mentally ill people is promoting Bill c-218 in the House of Commons. In support of this Bill c-218 would stop the medical process of MAID (medical assistance in dying) for those whose sole stated illness is serious mental illness. Please contact Todd Doherty & Prime Minister Mark Carney. Link to amendment: <https://www.parl.ca/legisinfo/en/bill/45-1/c-218>
